

Here's what others using the service have said about it:

"The employment service is great for me because it has kept me focused on job searching and they were there to help me when I needed it. I also think it's great that they make sure that I get into work. Their service also helps me to build up my confidence which makes me more willing to work"

"Thanks to the structured and supportive approach of all those involved, and my own commitment to making it work, it has been a huge success and has had an extremely positive effect on my mental health, future work prospects and overall quality of life"

Working together, changing lives

Would you like to access employment opportunities?

CNWL can help you develop your career in a friendly and supportive environment, giving you access to training, new skills and qualifications in a programme to suit you.

A one-to-one personalised service to suit your needs

Who can use the programme?

You need to be a service user with one of our Mental Health Recovery, Early Intervention in Psychosis, or Addiction Teams.

If this service appeals to you, please ask your care coordinator or key worker to refer you to the Employment Specialist in your area.

What we require from you

- The motivation to return to or start work
- Willingness to commit to an employment action plan
- Openness and honesty when dealing with all employment issues
- To be punctual when attending appointments
- To provide feedback on our service, good or bad, to enable us to continually improve our service
- Commitment to job seeking.

What we can offer

- A one-to-one personalised service to suit your needs
- Emphasis on the sort of work that you want to do
- Help writing your CV, covering letters and applications

- Individualised job searches that suit you
- Help to access training, gain new skills and qualifications
- Links with local services and employers
- We can contact employers on your behalf.

What happens next?

- We will meet with you to help you explore your options
- A job seeking action plan will be agreed with you and followed
- You will have regular appointments with your Employment Specialist
- You will have access to in-work support once you have gained employment.
